THURSDAY NOVEMBER 7, 1901.

Judge Yerkes will remain upon the local bench. When he was put on the ticket the Gazette declared he would be removed in November.

Election prophets will now have to take a vacation. A glance over the papers of Monday and Tuesday will convince one that these should be but little faith put in the predictions of many election forecasters.

Considerable is being said by the Fusionists at the deceased majority for Potter as compared with candidates in former campaigns. It must be remembered that a remarkably light vote was polled on Tuesday.

Judge Yerkes may probably extract some comfort from the fact that he went through Bucks county with bells on. His big majority of 2000 is accounted for from the fact that many Republicans voted for him hoping to make room upon the local bench for a Republican.

Seth Low is high man in New York. The Tammany tiger had his claws clipped and its hide tanned. The Republican organization, aided by independent voters, marched in solid phalanx and routed the Fourteenth street wigwag crowd horses, foot and dragons.

Justice Potter will have a majority in the State that will range near 50,000. His triumph is a remarkable manifestation of the steadfastness of the Republican voters of the State. The big newspapers of the cities conducted a relentless warfare against his candidacy, and still a majority of the people voted for him.

The London war office has decided to send 5000 more mounted men to South Africa during the next six weeks. There are only about 7000 mounted men at home. The subject of the Boers has proved to be a costly undertaking for the English Government. Blood and treasure have been spent in a manner that causes grave fears that the final result is not yet in sight. Twenty thousand soldiers of the crown have sacrificed their lives in the campaign, millions of dollars have been expended and a force of over two hundred thousand men is kept in the field and still the Boers win victories. Napoleon seems to have been in error when he declared that the Lord is on the side of the heaviest troops.

The election of Potter and Harris is a distinct victory for the Quany State organization. Every voter was repeatedly informed that a vote for the Republican State ticket was a mark of confidence and a signal of approval of the Quany regime. The line was clearly and sharply drawn; there were no third candidates to deflect votes. Upon the one side there was a coalition of Anti-Quany Republicans and Democrats, and upon the other were arranged the stalwarts. The result is a token that a majority of the voting population of Pennsylvania is in favor of Senator Quay and his political organization. There can be no excuse for the "insurgent" and Democratic road. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were expended in the "reform" cause, but victory perched upon the banner of regular Republicanism.

The result in Bucks county was not unexpected, although it must be conceded that Judge Yerkes' majority is double what was anticipated. For the first time in years the Democratic vote in the upper end of the county was gotten out, and local pride caused many Republicans to vote. Judge Yerkes occupied the peculiar position of being voted for by friends and enemies. The former cast their ballots for him because of personal admiration, and his enemies in the hope that he would be removed from the county. The Republican county ticket was elected by safe majorities. Charles Knight, candidate for County Treasurer, ran behind because of the active canvass of his opponent, Eliot. Mr. Knight may deem it an honor to have won such a fight, as there was pitted against him a foe of great strength in popular public estimation, and aggressive in the campaign for the office.

The Philadelphia Press and North American are sunk so deep in the mire of partisan prejudice that their statements and opinions are of little value. In an attempt to shadow the effect of the overwhelming Republican victory the cry of "fraud" is raised and the charge made of police interference. In contradiction to the above papers' charges the Evening Telegraph yesterday said:

On all sides there are heard favorable comments upon the conduct of the Police Department during the election yesterday, and praise is bestowed upon the patrolmen for their strict obedience to the orders issued to them prior to election day by Mayor Ashbridge and Director English that they keep the prescribed distance from the polling places. That this order was no preventive command, was evidenced in every section of the city yesterday. In many divisions the bluecoat detailed at the polls was not a block away, while in others he was not to be seen at all. Down in the lower wards there were charges of interference on the part of the police, but these complaints are few, and do not compare with the charges made during the Burk-Moehler contest of a year ago.

In all probability the subject of irrigating the arid plains of the west will elicit the attention of Congress at the next session. People of the east have little conception of the immeasurable benefits that will accrue from the construction of irrigating canals in the western deserts. Millions of acres that are now a dreary waste, if irrigated would bloom and yield crops that would enable an Eastern farmer. Government aid is necessary and in no way could it be lent to better advantage. The building of an isthmian canal sinks into insignificance in comparison to the material wealth that could be added to the country by the spending of an equal amount of money for turning water into the deserts of New Mexico, Arizona, Nebraska, Wyoming, Washington and other Western States and territories. President Roosevelt is investigating the subject with a view of making some recommendation to Congress in the matter. He is perfectly familiar with the situation and will set forth his view in his message.

A great deal has been said and written of late concerning legislative bribery in this state. The "insurgent" newspapers have voraciously devoured every item that tended to throw discredit upon the Republican organization. Starting with the election of Senator Quay, the "insurgent" has been accused of deliberate purchasing the votes of members. The Pittsburgh and Philadelphia "rippers" and later the railway franchise bills are alleged to have found their way to the state books over a path paved with bank notes and gold. Stalwart Republicans alone are the targets of the insurgent's accusing shafts of bribery. In the passage of the railway bills, which have been denounced as infamous, there were but thirty-five opponents in the house. Surely all these were not stalwart voters. The following from the Doylestown Republican would indicate, also, that there was a powerful "influence" other than the state administration that injured the passage of the railway bills:

At a Union party meeting held in Philadelphia under the auspices of the Municipal League some very interesting statements were made by Claude Bedford, member of the Legislature. Mr. Bedford charges some of the most prominent citizens of the state with responsibility for legislative bribery. He declared that among the corrupting influences was the railroad system inaugurated by the railroad companies and that even Judges accepted bribes. Here is an extract from his speech: "Will it surprise you when the history of these franchises is made public to know that the Pennsylvania Railroad did the work?"

"The better class of persons do not care to be seen with Ashbridge or English. So soon as the people can be brought to a realization of the influence that has been about these notorious President Cassatt will be shamed. I know the responsibility I am taking upon myself, but I know the degrading influence of the pass system."

These are very plain words. What will the Union party papers do? Will they investigate and train their guns upon the great corporations and their officials or will they continue to shoot at the poor fellow who is an impracticable theorist, a dreamer who fails to recognize that even reform has its limitations.

Written for the Gazette.

McKinley—September—1901.

Third in the maitre band,
O'Brien (the stout),
With Lincoln (the stout),
In high relief.

The foul assassin's blow,
By Judas dealt,
Intend to lay thee low,
Thy body foil.

But, stout instinct with hate,
With murder rife,
Thy spirit did translate,
To higher life.

In annals of renown,
Henceforth thy name
Shall soar the nation's crown;
Shall glow the nation's fame!

Attack on thee, alone?
O, President!
No; millions, every one,
That crime resent.

Traitors may kill the man,
Their work's ill spent;
Our Constitution's plan
Preserves the President!

Submissive unto thee,
Oh Sovereign head,
Grant us that we may say,
As our lamented dead,
"God's Will be done."

Cures for Small-Pox.

One grain of zinc, one grain of fox glove—sometimes called digitalis: mix with two tablespoonfuls of water; when thoroughly mixed, add four ounces water. Take a teaspoonful every hour for twelve hours.

If the directions of this receipt are followed there will no longer be any need of sore arms during the small-pox epidemic. At least so asserts Mother Marie Joseph, a sister of Charity, connected with St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, at 7th and Spruce streets, Philadelphia.

Not only is the person who takes this mixture immune from small-pox, but it is even said to cure the disease in its most violent stages and, indeed, to create immunity to all contagious diseases. The efficacy of this medicine is attested by the cure of the sister and likewise by her predecessor, Mother Gonzaga. During the last few days a large quantity of the medicine has been made by Mother Josephs and distributed to many applicants.

One of our exchanges says: A handbook in which some of the small-pox statement.

"The worst case of small-pox can be cured in three days, simply by the use of cream of tartar, dissolved in a pint of water, drank at intervals, when cold, is a certain never failing remedy. It has cured thousands, never leaves a mark, never causes blindness, and avoids tedious lingering."

SCHELEY INQUIRY NEARLY ENDED

Mr. Rayner's Closing Argument Was Very Touching.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The climax of the Scheley court of inquiry came yesterday, when Mr. Rayner, the state's attorney, made his closing argument, a brilliant argument of over three hours, with peroration so eloquent and impassioned that all within the sound of his voice were profoundly touched. He pictured the victorious sailor suffering as few have suffered for three long years while the fires of persecution leaped around him, and now awaiting the hour of vindication in the verdict of the court.

"And when it comes," he concluded, "the can, from the high and exalted position that he occupies, look down upon his traducers and maligners, and with excellent cause, exclaim: 'I care not for the venomous gossip of clubs, driving rooms and cliques and the poisoned shafts of envy and of malice. I await under the guidance of divine providence the verdict of posterity.'"

"The scene in the court room as he attacked with these words was thrilling. As Mr. Rayner began his eulogy of Admiral Scheley those in the audience, many of whom were ladies, and when he described the admiral's gallant deed and the long persecution to which he had been subjected, many of them broke down and wept. The members of the court displayed evidences of emotion and Admiral Scheley himself was plainly moved. He sat, leaning back, with his hands behind his head, his chin twisted, and as his counsel said before him, 'I care not for the venomous gossip of clubs, driving rooms and cliques and the poisoned shafts of envy and of malice. I await under the guidance of divine providence the verdict of posterity.'"

TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS

Result of Balloting in the Different States.

THE VOTE IN PENNSYLVANIA

Weaver, Rep., Carried Philadelphia by 43,667 Plurality.

REPUBLICANS WIN NEW JERSEY

Tammany Meets Defeat in Almost Every Instance in the Metropolis. Republicans Elect Their Governor in New Jersey by 17,500 Plurality. Result in Other States That Elected Governors.

Harrisburg, Nov. 7.—While the Republicans carried the state of Pennsylvania by a handsome majority, the feature of the election was the immense drop in the size of the usual plurality. Whereas the usual figure has been 110,000, the result of Tuesday's vote shows that William P. Potter won by a margin of 47,939 in his fight for Judge of the supreme court. Frank G. Harris was elected state treasurer and incidentally given a vote of greater confidence, with a plurality of 52,360.

The vote was considerably reduced over that of two years ago as to totals, and shows peculiarities that will be more apparent as the final figures are corrected. The Fusion ticket ran behind in counties where it was usually expected to show at its best, and developed surprising strength in some sections where it was least looked for.

Philadelphia figured to be a small extent in determining the verdict of the polls. Potter came down to the Philadelphia county line with only about 11,000 plurality, and had the latter district polled a Fusion victory he would undoubtedly have gone down to defeat.

The vote in nearly all the interior counties has been remarkably light, reaching fair proportions only in a few. There were uncertain contests over local offices. These seem to have enlisted more interest than the state ticket. It is apparent from the figures that in some sections a considerable proportion of the Democratic vote was given to the Republican state candidates.

Allegheny county has given Harris 18,000 plurality and Potter 15,000. Chester county, a Republican stronghold, has been carried for Fusion, and Montgomery has gone the same way.

The total vote cast in the state was 850,000. The total vote cast last year was 1,173,210. Two years ago the total vote was 790,501. Pennsylvania on Tuesday voted on three proposed amendments to the constitution, which provide for personal registration and voting machines. The propositions must, however, be acted by the legislature, which meets in 1903, before they can be embodied in the constitution.

The Vote in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Notwithstanding the intense interest, the election throughout the city was conducted generally in an orderly manner. There were, however, numerous disputes at polling places and in a number of instances the disputants came away with broken heads, but no serious rows occurred anywhere. Both the regular Republicans and the Fusionists charge each other with wholesale fraud and promise to make numerous arrests. There were numerous arrests for violations of the election laws, but in nearly every case the offender was promptly bailed out by political friends.

John Weaver, the Republican candidate for district attorney, was elected over P. Fred Rothermel, Jr., the Union party's nominee, the full returns from the 41 wards giving the Republican candidate a plurality of 15,687.

The full returns for the candidates, with the pluralities, are as follows:

District Attorney.
John Weaver, Rep., 138,129
P. F. Rothermel, Jr., Union, 94,453
W. W. Carr, Dem., 7,252

Weaver's plurality, 43,667

Recorder of Deeds.
William S. Vane, Rep., 135,680
John Virdin, Union, 91,105
Henry Fernberger, Dem., 10,788

Vane's plurality, 44,575

City Controller.
J. M. Walton, Rep. and Union, 219,751
James M. Martin, Dem., 10,194

Walton's plurality, 209,237

State Treasurer.
Frank T. Harris, Rep., 135,840
E. A. Coray, Jr., Dem. and Union, 100,895

Harris' plurality, 35,155

Justice of Supreme Court.
William P. Potter, Rep., 134,616
Harman Yerkes, Union, 101,639

Potter's plurality, 32,977

Of the forty-one wards in the city District Attorney Rothermel carried eight, as follows: Nineteenth, 2,149; Twenty-second, by 362; Twenty-third, by 599; Twenty-fourth, by 347; Thirty-second, by 164; Thirty-fourth, by 73; Thirty-fifth, by 174, and Forty-first, by 120.

The total vote polled in the city for all the parties exceeded the total presidential vote last November, showing that both the big parties, the Republican and Union, got out every possible vote. For McKinley and Bryan the total vote was 251,836. For Weaver, Rothermel and Carr the total vote was 241,825.

The proposed amendments to the constitution in the interest of personal registration and to prepare the way for the introduction of voting machines were adopted by substantial majorities.

REPUBLICANS WIN NEW JERSEY

Murphy Elected Governor by 14,763 Plurality—Result in Atlantic.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—Returns from the various counties of the state give Franklin Murphy, the Republican candidate for governor, a plurality of 17,500 over James M. Seymour, Democrat.

This is more than three times as much as Voorhees obtained for governor three years ago and about one-third the sweeping majority the state gave the national Republican ticket a year ago. Every county but four gave Murphy majorities. Hudson county, which is generally good for at least 10,000 Democratic, failed to reach that figure by 1,300. Camden county, where Seymour was expected to run very strong, despite the fact that the county is Republican, gave Murphy 4,745. McKinley's plurality in the county was 8,867, and three years ago Voorhees carried it by 4,105. Essex, which was the home county of both candidates, and where Seymour was expected to wipe out a Republican majority and obtain a thousand or so for himself, gave Murphy 6,773. Essex gave McKinley 18,583 a year ago, and Voorhees 4,687 three years ago.

This victory is made all the more decisive from the fact that Mr. Seymour was believed to be the strongest man the Democrats could nominate.

The Legislature.

The Republicans will control both houses of the legislature by majorities of more than three to one.

Rep. Dem. Maj. Senate, 17 4 13

Joint ballot, 63 13 45

Of the 14 Democratic assembliesmen 11 are from Hudson, and of the total Democratic representation on joint ballot Hudson will contribute 12.

Camden.

Camden, Nov. 7.—Recorder Joseph E. Nowrey, who was the Democratic candidate for mayor of Camden at Tuesday's election, was elected by a majority of 197. He was the only Democrat in the field who gained a victory, the Republicans having swept that town. Franklin Murphy, Republican candidate for governor, had a majority in the election of the entire state of 3,500. All the Republican candidates for councils and fresholders were elected.

In Atlantic City.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 7.—What was in many respects the greatest political fight ever waged in the history of this city and county resulted in the election of the entire Republican ticket. The county was claimed before the election by the Democrats by 300 for Seymour for governor, and the highest estimate by the Republicans for Murphy was 1,600, but the latter's majority is over 2,500. The counting of the heavy vote made in every voting precinct on Lee, for state senator, and the result for a long time was in doubt, the Democrats having gone home at an early hour satisfied that William L. Loudenslager had been elected to the state senate by 50 majority. The count in the Fourth ward was not finished until nearly 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and corrected returns from all precincts in the city and county assure Lee's election by 238.

Maryland.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—Returns show a result in the legislative contest which is almost without parallel in Maryland. The Democrats have elected a majority of the entire legislature, and seven newly-elected senators, which, combined with the ten who held over in the senate, assures the friends of Mr. Gorman a total of 63 on joint ballot. The Republicans have elected 49 delegates and six senators, which added to their three hold-over senators, gives them a total of 58 on joint ballot. The Republicans will be able to organize the house of delegates. One of the surprises of the day was the close vote in Allegheny county, heretofore safely Republican by majorities ranging from 1,200 to 2,000. The Democrats have elected their senator and one representative in that county.

Ohio.

Columbus, O., Nov. 7.—Governor Nash is re-elected by a majority of 76,661, more than he received two years ago. The Republicans have carried every county in the legislature, thus insuring a Republican successor to Senator Foraker. The Democrats, however, declare that they won in many close legislative contests. Franklin county, in which is Columbus, gave Colonel Kilbourne, the Democratic candidate, a plurality, though slightly, over the Republican.

Democratic Chairman Daugherty said of the election "I believe Republican success is due to the assassination of McKinley and the prevailing prosperity."

Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 7.—Massachusetts gave Governor Crane, Republican, 70,304 plurality, a decrease of 33 1/2 per cent. from last year's plurality Boston gave Josiah Quincy, the Democratic nominee, 7,700 plurality, about the same as W. J. Bryan received last year.

The governor's council includes seven Republicans and one Democrat, as last year. The legislature stands: Republicans, 166; Democrats, 72; Social Democrats, 2, while the senate is 32 Republicans and 7 Democrats.

FUSION'S SWEEP IN NEW YORK

Low's Plurality Is 29,884—Jerome Elected District Attorney.

New York, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from every district of Greater New York give Seth Low, Fusion candidate for mayor, 294,982, and Edward M. Shepard, Democratic candidate, 285,128, making Low's plurality 29,884.

Edward M. Grout, Fusionist candidate for controller, received 299,713 votes, and William Ladd, his Democratic opponent, 254,737, making the plurality of the Fusionist 44,976.

Returns from every election district in New York county give William Travers Jerome, Fusionist, a lead of 15,830 over Henry W. Unger, Democrat, in the race for the district attorneyship. The vote of the two follows: Jerome, 163,959; Unger, 148,079.

Complete returns show the election of the following justices of the supreme court: Morgan J. O'Brien, Democrat; Samuel J. B. Greenbaum, Fusionist; James A. Blanchard, Fusionist; John Proctor Clarke, Fusionist; Charles W. Dayton, the nearest man to him on the judicial ticket, by 6,116 votes, and best Robert A. Van Wyck, the present mayor, by 29,080.

A revised recapitulation of the vote on president of the board of aldermen, with every district reported, shows that Charles V. Farnes, Fusionist, has George M. Van Ness, Democrat, beaten by a plurality of 3,294.

In the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, the following are the totals for mayor: Low (Fusion), 143,951; Shepard (D.), 126,192.

In the borough of Brooklyn: Low, 106,512; Shepard, 84,074.

In the borough of Queens: Low, 12,095; Shepard, 12,004.

In the borough of Richmond: Low, 6,750; Shepard, 6,045.

The City Government. The new city government will be as follows: Mayor—Seth Low, Fusion.

Comptroller—E. M. Grout, Fusion.

President of the board of aldermen—Charles V. Farnes, Fusion.

President of the Borough of Manhattan—Jacob A. Cantor, Fusion.

President of the Borough of Bronx—Louis F. Haffen, Tammany.

President of the Borough of Brooklyn—J. Edward Swanson, Fusion.

President of the Borough of Queens—Joseph Cassidy, Democrat.

President of the Borough of Richmond—George Cromwell, Fusion.

The Republicans will retain control of the lower house of the state legislature, the number of Republican and Democratic assemblymen not differing materially from the figures of preceding years.

The practical use of a voting machine was demonstrated in the Eighteenth district of the First assembly district, Brooklyn, and the result was known at 10:15 the afternoon, immediately after the polls were closed. No difficulty was experienced in recording the vote, and in many instances men cast their votes in less than three seconds.

Congratulations For Low.

New York, Nov. 7.—Mayor-elect Low was the recipient of scores of congratulatory messages. The following dispatch was received from President Roosevelt:

"I congratulate the city even more than I do you upon the overwhelming triumph of the force of decency." Mr. Low replied as follows: "Your hearty congratulations have done me good."

Mr. Low sent the following reply to the congratulatory telegram sent him by the defeated Democratic candidate, E. M. Shepard:

"Your hearty and generous congratulations are highly valued. Accept my sincere thanks, Mr. Shepard."

Croker Will Not Retire.

Richard Croker denied that he had given up the leadership of Tammany Hall or that he would do so. Mr. Croker said: "The report that I am to quit politics is absolutely false, and it is not true that I am to sail for Europe at once. I am in good health, and I shall stay right here for some time to come."

Rhode Island.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 7.—Complete returns from the state give Gregory, Rep., for governor, 25,242; Garvin, Dem., 19,853. Gregory's plurality, 5,389, as against 8,859 last year. In the senate the Republicans have elected 31 members and the Democrats 7, and in the house the proportion is 51 Republicans to 40 Democrats.

Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 7.—Iowa has elected A. B. Cummins, the Republican nominee for governor, by a plurality of 92,000, and the legislature, which will elect two United States senators. The Republicans are surprised at the large plurality, which exceeds that for president last year.

Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—Nebraska has given a Republican majority of 7,000, thus electing Samuel H. Sedgwick as judge of the supreme court, and two regents for the State University over the Fusion nominees. This is a large Republican majority than last year.

Virginia.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—Virginia has given 30,000 majority for the Democratic ticket. Colored men who voted were very few.

The Republicans gain two senators and eight members of the house leaving both branches of the legislature overwhelmingly Democratic.

South Dakota.

Huron, S. D., Nov. 5.—McCoy, Rep., has been elected circuit judge over Null, Fusion, by 800 majority.

Milk Is Patentable.

If milk does not disappear with one, a quart or more a day will help immensely in the work of getting fat. It should be sipped rather slowly, as it turns into curds the moment it reaches the gastric juices of the stomach and when a large quantity is swallowed at once the large mass formed is not quickly digested. A tablespoonful of lime-water in a glass of milk will neutralize its bilious properties.

Rules and Exceptions.

"Politics is a science," remarked the man of Chesterfield manners. "Well, mister," answered the weather beaten person, "that may be true in your part of town, but if you was in the coal-bus business you'd know that there ain't any use whatever of saying 'please' to a mule."—Washington Star.

WATERBURY'S MONKEYS

"All well—all happy—lots of fun." That is the regular report from the monkey cage of Barnum's Circus ever since the keepers began dosing the monkeys with Scott's Emulsion. Consumption was carrying off two thirds of them every year and the circus had to buy new ones.

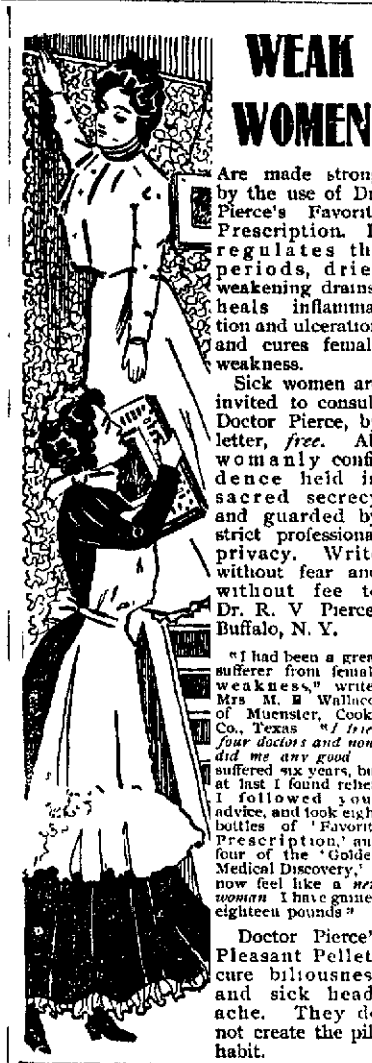

One day a keeper accidentally broke a bottle of Scott's Emulsion near the monkey cage and the monkeys eagerly lapped it up from the floor. This suggested the idea that it might do them good. Since then the monkeys have received regular doses and the keepers report very few deaths from consumption. Of course it's cheaper to buy Scott's Emulsion than new monkeys—and that suits the circus men.

Consumption in monkeys and in man is the same disease. If you have it or are threatened with it can you take the hint?

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle.

Most Fascinating at Forty.

An English writer declares that not until a woman reaches the age of forty does she reach the maximum of her power over susceptible members of the opposite sex. "Her face," says the writer referred to, "may have lines that 'sweet and tender' regards with disgust; her figure may be fuller than 'sweet seventeen' deems graceful; it may even be that art has to step in where nature fails in the matter of hair and complexion, but it is not until she is forty that she is in the prime of her life. In character, interest, in thought, the woman of forty at the present day is as young as her daughter less than half her years, but her mind is better balanced, her judgments are clearer."

Unchained.

An English alderman of one of the new boroughs in the provinces, meeting a friend who occupied a similar position of dignity and usefulness in a neighboring district, said:

"We have provided our mayor with a splendid chain. What are you doing for yours?"

"Oh," replied his friend, "we are going to let our boulder run loose."

Previous to the election a box was set up in Smith's cigar store, next to the post office, where thorough forecasts were deposited. The scheme was to drop in twenty-five cents with a guess as to the total vote in the borough, the winner to take the entire collection. Several dollars were thus placed. Albert Pepper, manager of O'Brien's store, was the winner of the contest. His guess was 1106. The total vote was 1115.

Assistant Superintendent Robert Guyon of the Doylestown and Willow Grove trolley, formerly a resident of Bristol, made a mistake one night last week in the dark which resulted in a painful injury. Mr. Guyon said he felt his home on South Main street, Doylestown, when he tripped over a projecting curb and fell heavily striking and dislocating his shoulder. Although the injury was very painful Mr. Guyon walked to the office of Dr. Swartzlander, Jr., where the dislocation was promptly reduced. The accident will result in a rest of several days for the injured member.

Wanted Coaching Photographs.
Young Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt spends money with a hand almost lavish in the interests of the Roman deaconess. On the record-breaking trip that he made through Bristol from New York to Philadelphia he had his own photographer's youth in an odd gray suit along with him, and he and his equipment were photographed by newspaper men at every stop that was made along the line. Immediately after the trip Mr. Vanderbilt received a firm of solicitors in New York to ascertain the names of all the newspaper men who had photographed him to obtain the exclusive rights of all the negatives which they had made, and then to order three dozen mounted pictures from each negative that was good. A photographer of Philadelphia who had made three negatives out of order from the firm of solicitors for nine dozen pictures at $4 a dozen. One day's work filled the order and he earned it a day $34. He says there were at least 75 pictures made of Mr. Vanderbilt on his trip, and at least 50 of those were good. Therefore he estimates that, what with the bill of the advertising solicitors, this great ordering of photographs by the young millionaire has cost him fully $1000.

Karris-Garnahan.
In the presence of a large assemblage of guests a very pretty autumn wedding took place last evening at the home of Mrs. Julia Carnahan on Jefferson avenue, when her daughter, Mae Elma, became the bride of James Home Harris, of Charlottesville, Va. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. J. Garland, rector of St. Paul's P. E. Church. The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Florence Carnahan, and the bridesmaid, Miss Clara W. Lovett, of Penn's Manor. George Goldie, Jr., of Princeton, was best man and the ushers were Hugh E. Hale, of Philadelphia, and Clifford E. Insley, of Pottersburg. The wedding march was played by Miss Bertha Zimmerman, of Pittsburgh. The bride wore white crepe de chine over white tulle and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Her long tulle veil was caught in her hair with a cluster of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a gown of white point d'esprit over pink tulle and carried pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid wore white Paris muslin and carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The house was prettily decorated with autumn leaves, chrysanthemums and potted plants. Mr. and Mrs. Harris were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents, and at the close of the reception following the ceremony, until the last wishes of the bride and groom were on a wedding trip to Hot Springs, Va. Mr. Harris is a very popular man in railroad circles and has just received an appointment as Supervisor of the Belvidere Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He will reside at Lumberville, N. J.

THE ELECTION.

The election in Bristol was a quiet affair and there appeared to be but little interest manifested, and about the usual "off" year vote was polled. Eleven hundred and fifty votes were cast in the borough, against fourteen hundred for the presidential election of last year.

Yerkes, Democratic candidate for Supreme Judge, lead his ticket and received 451 votes, about 125 Republicans of the borough having cast their tickets in his favor. The only ward carried by Yerkes was the Fourth which returned a majority of 3 for him. A strong interest was at work in the First ward in Yerkes' interest, but the majority of four in that district. In the Fourth ward Harris and Coray were tied, 105 votes being cast for each candidate. Fellman, Penrose and Shelly, Republicans, carried the ward by narrow margins. Six Prohibition votes were cast in the First ward and three in the Second and one in the Third.

The amendments to the Constitution received but scant attention, but where voted upon at all it was favorable. The details and vote of the borough and wards is as follows:

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

STATE APPROPRIATION—SHORT—NORMAN SPECIMENS RECEIVED—SCHOLARS MUST BE VACANT NAMED—ROUTINE BUSINESS.

On Monday evening the regular monthly meeting of the Public School Board was held in the directors room in the high school building. Those present were, John R. Willman, Harvey S. Roe, Edward H. Foster, W. H. Hall, M. D. Harrison, D. A. Barrett, M. McGinley, Doron Green.

The treasurer reported having received the state appropriation amounting to $4704.44. As this is a decrease of over $200 under that of last year, and the cause is not apparent, the state treasurer will be asked for an explanation. The treasurer further reported that $300 had been received from the delinquent tax collectors and $13.75 for the tuition of non-residents.

The library committee reported that the cabinets for the specimens, which had been presented to the school by the Philadelphia Commercial Museum, at the request of the board and through the interposition of Captain F. G. Edwards, had been made and the specimens received and arranged.

Pres. Willman stated that he had written letters of thanks to both Captain Edwards and Dr. Wilson of the museum, expressing the appreciation of the board for the very useful and highly instructive gift. The specimens, three hundred in number, which comprise samples of wood and vegetation, and of the minerals, fossils, and minerals, etc., etc., together with beautifully mounted photographs of rice fields, coconut groves, and scenes characteristic of different countries, are arranged in cases and placed on the wall, giving an artistic appearance to the eyes as well as beautifying the directors room in which they have been placed. The collection is open for the inspection of the public.

The Superintendent Miss Louise D. Baggis made a verbal report concerning the institute which was held in the Court House, Doylestown, last week, and assured the directors, that the teachers had spent a very pleasant and profitable week.

The board then turned to a report entered into a discussion regarding the school controlling vaccination, and finally decided that the teachers should inform the scholars, that the law must be complied with and that all scholars must be vaccinated in order to receive the school money. The scholars will be admitted unless previously vaccinated.

The treasurer was instructed to notify the holder of the first series of the school's bonds, that a thousand dollar bond would be cancelled on the first of January, 1902.

The meeting night of the board was changed from the first Monday in each month to the first Thursday, commencing with December meeting. Bills amounting to $1518.68 passed and orders paid. The supply committee was instructed to procure two portable black boards. The matter of introducing an elementary commercial course, the making of which will be optional with the scholars in the high school, was referred to the superintendent to investigate and report upon at the next meeting.

The superintendent's report is as follows: Number enrolled 814, greatest number present 770, least number present 680, average attendance 704, per cent of attendance 87, pupils present 1/2 day 244, new pupils admitted 13, number promoted 3.

A Halloween Party.
The Class of 1902 of the Bristol High School gave a masquerade party on Halloween at the residence of Miss Laurie Pearson. The affair was a great success, all the phantoms, Indians, Spaniards, members of the class, and the guests, were in the best of spirits, and the evening was spent with each other in living up to the occasion. Several of the braves showed their skill before the ladies fair in ducking their heads in water for apples. Many of them not only got the apples but the apples were thrown at them. The evening was a most successful one, and the guests were all well satisfied.

The party was not entirely satisfied with this kind of desert so the entertaining game of post office was participated in with great pleasure, even the stately doctress coming in for her share. The "see me" 1/2 hours of the morning came to the boys decided they would like to take a walk with somebody and thus they made their departure. Among those present were: Misses Belle Smith, Lottie Betz, Edith McElroy, Lizzie Berry, Laurie Pearson, Misses Hunter, Messrs. Jonathan Wright, Earle Brown, Martin Perry, George Leigh, William Jarvis, Arthur Jeffries, James Fenton, James McKellen and Mr. Shuerman.

Birthday Surprise Party.
Last week the Ladies Aid Society of the German Lutheran church and friends surprised Mrs. Andrew Bagn at her home, corner Pond and Logan streets. The occasion was Mrs. Bagn's birthday and the evening was spent during the evening. Music and games were indulged in and refreshments were served. A number of presents were received by Mrs. Bagn. Those present were Messrs. and Mrs. Robert Bagn, Robert Bagn, Hetherington, John Smith, Jacob Schell, Frank Seltzer, Walter Vanhorn, Julius Katzmer, George Marshall, Robert Pfeiffer, O. Kupitz, Mrs. Catharina Shale, Misses Louise Bagn, Emma Bagn, Catharina Seltzer, Gerrie Marshall, Lillie Schell, Emma Katzmer, Messrs C. Friebe and A. B. Rathke.

To the Memory of Milton VanHorn.
At rest at last departed one,
Called from earth, life, so young;
Rest in peace, in joy, for evermore,
Heaven your home, bright, celestial shore.
To the father, mother and loved one dear,
Cheer up thy hearts, dry thy tears,
Trust in Him, the one from above,
Until you join in heaven your departed love.
J. H. STACKHOUSE.

BASKET BALL.

Great Victory Over New York.
On Tuesday evening there was witnessed one of the most exciting games of basket ball ever played on the local floor, when Bristol defeated the New York giants 31 to 21. The game was one of intense interest from start to finish, and was fraught with many sensational plays. The first half was abnormally contested and ended with the score tied at 14 points. In the second half Bristol simply put the big fellows up in the air and scored seven field goals to the visitors three. It would be impossible to single out any one of the Bristol men for commendation as all played with a skill and determination that has never been equaled by them. Bennett played the clever Everlein in a stand still, plant handles, "King" Wendelen in a manner that the great goal-shooter has never been treated before. Everingham gave that gladiator Reed such a chase that the great athlete was compelled to retire so winded that he could scarcely stand and shoot. Hall never carried a hat. Hough, the lilliputian, played rings around the elongated Abadie, and his repeated successful assaults upon the six-foot-three-inch guard put the large audience in a fever of excitement. "Moloch" Kline, the local "fame" was hoping that he would not show up in the game here on Tuesday and were considerably disappointed when they saw the big New Yorker enter the cage. But his presence made but little difference in the result. Bristol's winning streak which wound up in a whirlwind finish. The line-up:

Bristol Positions New York
Klein forward Grief, Wendelen forward Everlein forward Everingham center Wendelen, Reed Bennett guard Deitrich guard Bob Abadie guard

Goals from field—Klein 2, Hough 3, Everingham 2, Bennett 4, Plant 1, Wendelen 3, Grief 1, Everlein 2, Reed 2, Deitrich 2. Goals from offences—Everingham 7, Grief 1. Offences—Hough 2, Bennett 4, Plant 2, Wendelen 1, Everlein 1, Deitrich 3, Abadie 3. Referee—Buckley.

Won at Camden.
For the first time in the history of the Bristol National League basketball club, that team won from Camden on the latter floor. The Jerseymen's defeat was a surprise and complete to the local fans. Camden secured but one field goal in the first twenty minutes and the half closed with the score favoring Bristol 12 to 3. Plant gave a theatrical exhibition of a shooting star by throwing the ball into the basket from the end of the cage. As usual Hough and Kline were the twin attractions, the former giving the Jersey rooters heart disease. Bristol won by the score of 24 to 11. The line-up:

Bristol Positions Camden
Klein forward Bossert, Deal Hough forward Houchell, Forest Everingham center Middleton, Bossert Bennett guard Kinkaid Plant guard Dippy

Goals from field—Klein 4, Hough 3, Everingham, Bennett, Plant, Forest 2, Dippy. Goals from offences—Hough 4, Forest 2, Offences—Hough 2, Dippy 3, Hough 2, Plant 3, Klein 3, Bennett. Referee—Buckley.

Amateur Basket Ball.
On Saturday evening the Wild Rose Social and Bristol Jr. teams opened the amateur basket ball season in Bristol, the former winning by a one-sided score of 55 to 5. Offences—Hough 2, Forest 2, Dippy 3, Hough 2, Plant 3, Klein 3, Bennett. Referee—Buckley.

Free Throws.
The "big five,"
Millville Saturday night.
The game is never too fast for Bristol. Everlein is a clever and powerful forward. Out of eight chances Everingham landed seven free shots.

Camden was pite. Every member of the Bristol team scored.
Reed returned from Connecticut just in time to enter the Bristol game.

By reason of Millville defeating Trenton last evening Bristol is again in the lead.
Plant's field goal in Camden establishes a record which will not soon be broken.

The big crowd made the rafters shake when little Hough would break through the line and land a goal.
The next time Cooper is pitted against Hough Captain Klein should move Bennett forward and play Hough at guard.

The Bristol team is in splendid shape and shows the results of the close attention Manager Smith is giving to the business.
Greater basket ball was never played than in being played by Bristol this season. The team is composed of little fellows, but oh my!

The Trenton Times' effort to give the team of that city a clean bill of health is positively amusing. For "rough house" tactics the Trentons have no equals. They are a savage lot—especially Stinger and Barchin.

Between the halves, on behalf of the management, Referee Buckley announced that "Sandy" Shields had been signed by Bristol and that the great forward would report for duty the first of the month.

"Kid" Abadie is now in California and may go to Mexico. He has been busy in taking pictures for a biograph company, and was in the North West Territory taking photographs of the Duke of Cornwall's party for the moving picture machine.

The "Choo Choo" Again.

That merry band of fun-lovers, the "Choo Choo" Club, met at the home of Mrs. Forre on Cedar street on Tuesday night to celebrate the "choo choo" way the 16th (7 birthday) of Miss Anna Forre. Music, progressive games and dances a la "Old Dan Tucker," etc., were the order of the evening. During the serving of refreshments toasts were responded to. Mr. Temple acting as toastmaster. Mr. Tracy responded to "A Girl's Age" in a very mysterious manner. Mr. Hamersley made some good points on "Bachelors." Mr. Lukens, of Burlington, gave a good deal out of "Moonlight," while Mr. Conell, of Camden, was much inspired by the subject "Old Maids." Mr. Lumbard then told all about the "Choo Choo" Club, incidentally that it doesn't "choo choo" all night on a new subject called "Love." Mr. Sheppard thought it was all a joke and spoke for a time on that subject. All parties then joined in the anthem of the club, sung to the tune of "When Johnnie Comes Marching Home."

A jolly old crowd are on tonight, The "Choo Choo" Club.
We are in for a time, with all our might, The "Choo Choo" Club.
